

2nd International Staff Week Erasmus+ May 20th to 24th 2024

Politehnica University of Timișoara

Synergies in Academia: Cultivating Alliances, Embracing Interculturality and Promoting Sustainability

From May 20th to 24th, the Department for International Relations within Politehnica University of Timișoara, organizes the 2nd edition of the Erasmus+ International Staff Week!

Dedicated to both administrative staff and teaching personnel, the International Staff Week is designed to be a dynamic event for valuable discussions, insights, and collaborative efforts that contribute to global education.

This comprehensive event, dedicated to a maximum of 50 participants, focuses on stress management, interculturality, international students' challenges, and best practices within the Erasmus program!

Join us on a new and vibrant adventure of the international academic community!

Thus, the Erasmus International Staff Week aims to explore stress management strategies, underscoring their relevance in the academic realm. It emphasizes the importance of interculturality, recognizing its significance in fostering a globalized academic community. Moreover, the event explores the challenges faced by both coordinators and international students, offering insights and solutions to ensure their academic success. A focal point of the week's agenda is the exchange of best practices within the Erasmus program, aiming to optimize its impact on international academic collaboration.
